According to what I have been taught during my childhood as well as adulthood in respect to me'raj is that according to our belief as a Sunnat Jamaat Our Beloved Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) has seen Allah. However my daughter has faced lot of criticism when sharing this belief with her teacher and other students in the Madrasah. They told her that she is in a wrong path and even compared the Holy Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) with the Prophet Moosa (A.S) in the sense that the latter fainted by only hearing the voice of Allah and according to the teacher how can our beloved Prophet (S.A.W) saw Allah without fainted. Our family is very upset with this type of thinking of these people and they said that they are Sunni!!!! Dear Mufti sahib can you please highlight me on this issue and if my belief is ok. My family and I strongly believe that Our Beloved Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) saw Allah. This is what we have been learning as a Sunni. Can you also clarify if Buraq has a human face?

Also I visited 4 mosques near to my place and the imams have no beard. I am not doing prayer behind them. Did I make a good decision?

Walaikum Salaam Wr Wb

Dear Brother,

It is mentioned in the authority of Sayyiduna Abdullah Ibn e Abbaas that the Holy Prophet peace be upon him said that I have seen My Lord with my physical eyes.

(Musnad Imam Ahmad Bin Hambal VI Pg 290)

This is the true conception of Ahl us Sunnah Wal Jamaa'ah. You can see the commentary of Shaikh Ismaayil Haqqi in the tafseer of Rooh ul Bayaan, Surah Al Israa, he has explained the event of Mi'raaj.

About Buraq the Holy Prophet said that it is this is an animal larger than a mule but smaller than a horse, Allah knows best about its face.

Perform your Namaz behind a Sunni Sahih ul Aqeedah Imam who follow the Shariah completely, i.e. he has his beard according to Sunnah of the Beloved Nabi 'peace and blessings be upon him'.

Jazaakallah
